O R D E R

Upon consideration of petitioners' motion to reschedule oral argument, it is ORDERED that the motion be denied. These cases remain scheduled for oral argument on November 24, 2025.

Arguing counsel are reminded of their obligation to promptly notify the court of any dates of unavailability to appear for oral argument. The notice should be filed as soon as possible after the briefing schedule issues and updated if a potential scheduling conflict arises later, or if there is any change in availability. See D.C. Circuit Handbook of Practice and Internal Procedures as 49 (2011).
